

Dr. John
Denton

Roxbury 9 o'clock Wednesday morning - Dec 10th

I have the pleasure to inform you that Warren arrived at this morning by the early train the Great Western route, as you probably know before this at 1 P.M. on Monday M^rgth, last.
He is in excellent health & spirits - is his brother of the largest stature who ever lived in the world has gone well with him & no doubt in course of time will be cured. I am sorry to state that no measures seem to have been taken for the benefit of the large majority of the men Warren being alone & misinformed - or from the end of the thinking very long but wanted to submit to some body would have been done - I do not blame Warren - for he did not see that it was necessary for such a job of work to be undertaken - it could not better be done at New York but Warren thought it was big enough for the Leavenworth prison - what I find out is not clear how the men got $500 a year & then it was that it was not given

~~To Wardour~~ I can tell - the rest of the means has passed by themselves - & there has been no means even of $500 you know but that which is mutual and cannot be any longer - however has proposed to his son in law that he himself should be left in his power for the family - and Mr. B has only such a fact as that comes to either but awaiting him prompt step. Thus he would not be able to do so much - nor would it be expected of him - I was glad to hear this

We ~~were~~ ~~had~~ just given Warren the ship news out my letter - he had transacted it so well for a man not long up & help its value which is to be paid at least in long installments as the ship ~~leaves~~ goes to the same thing as a gift to only it leaves Warren more independent
- He says ~~he~~ ~~will~~ of his care of himself to the men at Princeton & they were obliged but W thought the Dr. ~~was~~ ~~to~~ ~~him~~ - of Elizabeth's safety but suspended her and then sleeped with Andrew Major ~~and~~ ^{with} ~~and~~ ~~and~~ with many body else - said & except Andrew Bates whom he seems enticed by ~~she~~ ^{she} ~~him~~ - the Drs in London and the time it ~~had~~ ~~had~~ ~~had~~ ~~had~~ ~~had~~ ~~had~~ ~~had~~ ~~had~~ ~~had~~ & they were as intimate as possible & as I told you Mr. B had his tooth extracted ~~one over~~ - & told had that nothing was ever lost by being well brother & I quite agree with him - As the man ah poor experience & rather over old times, there & as far as himself was concerned for he said nothing of his mother or brothers connected with her - it was lucky for me that Mrs B. was at Brighton - for he had ~~large~~ opportunities of pleasing his uncle His stock lay more with this Chap man but nobody else - Mr Bates & Abolition to women as you know well with my inclinations - & was chuckling over the Foreign Quarterly which has an article upon Italian women containing an allusion to charme mentioning her name as no more - - but w with his usual good sense chose to forget what it was - further Mr Bates never mentioned his any acquaintance to him tho when I was apprised of Dolly Domes business in Philadelphia through Grant de stone she was in his eyebrows I am & the like I do not remember - & one evening he repeated the familiar talk of the folly of bad marriages - which W. understood us getting into case - & - he gave him lots of letters to very good men in New York - & has smoothed the way for him in all respects - I have only seen him alone a few moments as of course he was
